|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Espresso Martini                                                                                                                                                                      | 18 |
| A cold caffeinated cocktail for that hit of espresso you crave. Made from vodka, coffee liqueur, and espresso finishing with a hint of baileys for that creamy taste.                 |           |
| Amaretto Sour                                                                                                                                                                         | 17 |
| A sweet and sour, a twist on the classic sour. Comprised from the tastes of almonds, lime and cherries with the extra frothy texture for extra flavour.                               |           |
| Pina Colada                                                                                                                                                                           | 18 |
| The classic tropical cocktail, refreshing! White rum, pineapple juice, and coconut cream taking you back to that beach holiday we all dream of.                                       |           |
| Toblerone                                                                                                                                                                             | 20 |
| Inspired from the iconic Swiss chocolate, you cannot go wrong with this after dinner cocktail. Made from Kahlua, Baileys, Frangelico, Honey, Chocolate, and to top it off some cream. |           |
| Fruit Tingle                                                                                                                                                                          | 17 |
| Recognisable from its distinctive colours, the fruit tingle takes you back to your childhoods favourite lolly. Made from Vodka, Blue Curcoa, Raspberry topped with lots of ice.       |           |
| Old Fashion                                                                                                                                                                           | 17 |
| With the twist of an orange, adding some bourbon whiskey and sugar syrup, you have tasting an absolute classic.                                                                       |           |
| Negroni                                                                                                                                                                               | 17 |
| Another classic with equal parts gin, rosso, Campari. Create a great sweet, bitter and slightly herbal cocktail to have on the rocks, garnished with a orange twist.                  |           |
